INSTRUCTIONS

1. Whenever necessary to bring within the scope of the Requests documents that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope:

(a) the use of a verb in any tense shall be construed as the use of that verb in all other tenses;

(b) the use of a word in its singular form shall be deemed to include within its use the plural form as well;

(c) the use of a word in its plural form shall be deemed to include within its use the singular form as well;

(d) the connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope; and

(e) the terms “all,” “any,” and “each” shall be construed as encompassing any and all.

2. Each paragraph of the Requests should be construed independently and no other paragraph shall be referred to or relied on for the purpose of limiting the scope of any Request.

3. Documents and things should be produced in full, without abbreviation or expurgation, regardless of whether You consider the entire document to be relevant or responsive.

4. A request for a document shall be deemed to include a request for all actual, proposed, or contemplated drafts or mark-ups thereof, revisions, modifications, or amendments thereto, and non-identical copies thereof, in addition to the document itself.

5. Documents and things not otherwise responsive to any of the Requests herein should be produced if such documents and things mention, discuss, refer to, or explain one or more documents and things called for by the Requests or are attached to a document or thing called for by the Requests.

6. Documents and things should be produced pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as they are kept in the usual course of business or organized and labeled to correspond to the categories identified in these requests.

7. With respect to any document or thing responsive to the Requests that is withheld from production based on a claim of privilege, or for any other reason, describe such document by date, type (e.g., letter, memorandum, email, note), author, addressee, persons copied, general subject matter, claimed ground for the withholding, and, if not apparent, the relationship of the author, addressee, and recipients to each other.

8. In the event that any requested document or thing is known to have existed and cannot now be located or has been destroyed or discarded, that document shall be identified by: the last known custodian, date of destruction or discard, the manner of destruction or discard, the reasons for destruction or discard, any efforts made to locate such documents, and a statement describing the document by contents, author, and recipients.

9. 10. Unless otherwise specified, the documents and things requested include the responsive documents and things in the actual or constructive possession, control, or custody of You or Your attorneys or agents.

11. The fact that a document has been or will be produced by another party (or non-party) does not relieve You of the obligation to produce Your copy of the same document, even if the two documents are identical in all respects.

12. Please provide documents as single-page black and white TIFFs, with document-level OCR, delimited (.DAT) document load file, LFP or OPT image load files, and metadata for the following fields: BegDoc, EndDoc, BegAttach, EndAttach, Subject, FileName, Sent Date, Created Date, Last Modified Date, Author, From, To, CC, BCC, Recipients, Custodian, FilePath, Parent, MD5, ConfidentialStamp, Text_Path, and File_Path.
